

TF06 Accepted Policy Briefs

Total: 48

- 6.1.1 Leveraging the DPI Approach for Multilateral Cooperation in Humanitarian Aid
- 6.1.2 Building high-ambition multilateral commitments to future generations in the Pact of the Future: A cross-country comparative exploration of innovations in intergenerational policymaking in support of effective global long term governance
- 6.1.3 Bridging Global Climate Governance: The G20, GCF, and Architecting Fit-for-Purpose Finance for COP30 and Beyond
- 6.1.4 Advancing G20 Governance of Global Catastrophic Risk
- 6.1.5 Pandemics, WHO Global Governance and the Pandemic Instrument/Treaty/INB Process
- 6.1.6 LLMs as glocal inequality crisis
- 6.1.7 Potential modalities of a G20 platform for regional integration arrangements
- 6.1.8 Toward a New Global Security Paradigm
- 6.1.9 Democracy, good governance, and multilateralism: The missing North-South connect.
- 6.1.10 Ad hoc coalitions in international security: The role of the G20
- 6.2.1 Trade and the Environmental Poly-Crisis – Making the World Trade Organisation Fit to Better Deal with Trade and the Environment
- 6.2.2 Improving WTO Security Exception Clause: Preventing Abuse
- 6.2.3 Reinventing the WTO
- 6.2.4 Making WTO Ministerial Conferences Great Again
- 6.2.5 A Strategic Framework for Harnessing the Potential of Services Trade
- 6.2.6 Green Industrial Policy: How G20 members can foster Better Practices through Disclosure, Evaluation, and Dialogue
- 6.3.1 The Future of Vaccine Governance in Latin America and the Caribbean
- 6.3.2 Health as a Bridge for Peace
- 6.3.3 Public Health and Plurilateral Government Procurement Agreements
- 6.3.4 Catalysing Global Health Resilience: A Comprehensive Roadmap for Strengthening One Health
- 6.3.5 Reframing the concept of well-being in the context of One Health
- 6.4.1 Measuring Prosperity Inclusively and Sustainably
- 6.4.2 A Just Land Transition for Drylands
- 6.4.3 Measuring and managing client-orientation of mdbs for better and bigger impact
- 6.4.4 Improving Development Cooperation Flows: Solidarity, Multilateral Governance, and New Metrics of Health Impact in Incentivizing the Provision of Health as a Global Public Good
- 6.4.5 Bridging the Gap: Enhancing Measurement of South-South Cooperation from a Practitioners Perspective

- 6.4.6 Streamlining Investments in GCF, GEF, AF & CIF: Harmonizing Criteria to Scale Up Climate Finance
- 6.4.7 Addressing 21st Century's Agenda: Global Public Investment for Global Challenges
- 6.4.8 Role of Community Engagement in Advancing Sustainable Development
- 6.4.9 Shifting norms, multiplying actors, and empowering voices from the Global South: the G20's role in shaping the emerging landscape of international development cooperation
- 6.4.10 Enhancing Global Cooperation in Development Finance: Innovative Governance Models for Gender Equality and Climate Action Integration
- 6.4.11 Advancing Global Digital Policy with Data: Priorities for Collection and Interoperability
- 6.4.12 Improving access to Climate Finance Funds for National and Subnational Development Banks
- 6.4.13 Science Diplomacy - A Pathway for Achieving the Sustainable Development Goals
- 6.5.1 Strengthening Multilateral Climate Governance in G20: Role of Subnational and non-state actors
- 6.5.2 Strengthening engagement with non-state actors to bridge the climate governance gap
- 6.5.3 Enhancing the role of non-state actors in strengthening multilateral governance
- 6.5.4 Multi-Responsiveness Governance in the SDGs: Unveiling the Role of Subnational Governments
- 6.5.5 Advancing Global Health Governance and Financing through Meaningful Civil Society and Non-State Actor Participation
- 6.5.6 Non-State Actors and the Future of Multilateral Governance
- 6.5.7 Financing the SDGs and Global Infrastructure Gap: The Role of Quasi-State and Private Capital
- 6.6.1 Improving G20 Effectiveness and Accountability (decision - accept)
- 6.6.2 Recommitting to and accelerating actions to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) for road safety in the G20 countries (decision - accept with suggested modifications)
- 6.6.3 International Security Crises: A New Role for the G20 in Humanitarian Catastrophes? (decision: Accept with modifications)
- 6.7.1 New Forms of International Partnerships to Reduce Negative International Spillover Effects in Support of Global Sustainability
- 6.7.2 Envisioning a post-COVID-19 world order; decolonizing and strengthening institutions to reduce disparities across the Global North–Global South
- 6.7.3 Championing Development-Friendly Carbon Markets through Trade
- 6.7.4 Justice as a Tool for Sustainable Development and Global Governance: A Holistic Perspective of Science, Space, Justice and Society Alliance Against Organized Environmental Crime

Policy Briefs to be merged

Total: 2

- Merge # 1 (TF6.6)
 - Transitioning away from fossil fuels in a just, orderly and equitable manner
- What it means for G20 countries
 - Tracking G20 Commitments on Climate Change and Renewable Energy:
A Pathway to Decarbonized Future (decision suggested to be merged with other)